It was in the U.A.E. that Conrad made his First Holy Communion at St. Joseph's

Cathedral in the city of Abu Dhabi, in 1992.

Conrad moved with his family to Canada in 1997 and started to attend Mass at St. Bede's parish in Scarborough where he received Confirmation. St. Bede's would later be subsumed by the parish of St. Barnabas. He did Grade 8 at St Colomba Catholic Elementary and then went to Pope John Paul II High School. After this he attended one year of undergraduate at the University of Toronto and then continued the study of philosophy at St Philip Neri Seminary during his Postulancy.

In the year 2005, while living within the parish of St. Lawrence the Martyr in Scarborough, Conrad entered the postulancy program for the Order of Friars Minor, Province of the Immaculate Conception.

In 2006 he entered the Novitiate program at St. Leonard's Parish in the North end of Boston.

On July 15th 2007 Conrad made his simple profession in the Order, at the St. Francis Center for Religious studies in Caledon Ontario.

From 2007 – 2012 Conrad lived and studied in Rome at St Anthony's Pontifical University.

In 2012, having finished his course of studies, he made his Solemn Profession on August 24th, and was ordained a Deacon on August 25th, at the St. Francis Center for Religious studies in Caledon Ontario.
